A FATAL SPECULATION.

A PHILADELPHIA MAN'S CRAZY SCHEME TO ENRICH HIMSELF.

The Recent Explosion on the Steamer Felton Caused by a Laborer, Who, After Loading Himself with Insurance, Went Aboard and Blew the Boat Up.

New York, Aug. 29.—A Philadelphia special to the Herald says: It is now reasonably certain that a new species of crime has been developed in this country. The explosion of the excursion steamer S. M. Felton has been traced to the act of a man named Adriaens, who carried a large life of accident insurance. His presumed intention was to disable himself seriously, so he might enjoy an income of $150 per week, which his policies would have produced. He was killed, however, and the loss of $35,000 on the life of an apparent day laborer has so startled the companies that they have united to fight the claim. Detectives claim to have discovered that he has frequently been injured and received benefits from insurance policies.

FATAL FRANK OF A DELIRIUM TREMENS VICTIM.

CINCINNATI, Aug. 29.—John Rosemeyer, a well-to-do farmer living near Weisburg, Dearborn county, Ind., while in a condition bordering on delirium tremens yesterday left the bed and furniture on the floor of his room and fired it. It was a fatal shot, and the victim, who was lying in bed, was killed. The house and contents, worth $3,000, were destroyed.

TORN FROM HIS CONGREGATION.

Lawrence, Kansas, Aug. 29.—The sheriff returned yesterday from Missouri with R. F. Talbot, who was placed in the county jail for horse-stealing. The offense was committed over a year ago. Talbot was found in Callaway county conducting a series of camp meetings, being in charge of a circuit of two or three surrounding counties, in which he has been for the past nine months. He is a mulatto. The sheriff found Talbot holding forth in a colored church at Boydsville, and was obliged to tear him from his congregation and great excitement. Many sisters fainting and others tearfully beseeching officers "not to take Brother Talbot away."

YELLOW FEVER IN MEXICO.

PASO DEL NORTE, Mexico, Aug. 29.—Reports reached here today which seem to confirm the previous rumors that yellow fever is raging on the Pacific Coast of Mexico and has appeared both at Guaymas and Mazatlan. Late reports from Vera Cruz say the scourge is continually spreading.

THE COUNTY FAIR.

Closing Day Well Attended.—The Race and Other Attractions.

The thirty-third annual fair of Clark county closed yesterday, Friday, with a very large attendance up to the last hours. In the afternoon the irrepressible fakers were still doing the day before in a mild way, but country people are too well posted now to be taken in and are fully prepared to take care of themselves in matters of this kind. The fakers themselves confess that their business is fast decreasing, and new methods must be discovered to take in the city gamblers who are over so smart, or think they are, as the country boys who engage in little games of chance are getting to smart for the business. Our report already published brought the exhibition to Friday noon. The afternoon session centered on the races, and the crowd filled the grand stand, band stand and crowded the fencing.

The county trot opened the attraction with following entries: "Pilot," owned by Henry Rapp, Springfield; "Florence," owned by Charles Florence, South Charleston, with drawn at end of second heat; "Belle," owned by Grove Ingersoll, Springfield; "Spradler," owned by McDonald, New Carlisle; "Billy Shipman," owned by William H. Clark, Springfield. The purse, $500, was divided, $100 first, $200 second, $150 third. First heat, time not taken, Pilot first, Belle second, Spradler third, Billy Shipman fourth. Second heat, time 2:43. Spradler drove to second place, Belle third, all the horses maintaining this position to the finish, making third heat in 2:48, and the prize were awarded accordingly. On this race a protest was made at the end of second heat against "Spradler." The ground of protest, as stated by Grove Ingersoll, was that the horse was not owned in Clark county, but "Spradler's" driver, Mr. A. McKinnon, entered the judges' stand, and after stating that "Spradler" had been traded for about three weeks ago and was owned by Nathan McDonald, of New Carlisle, and signing a solemn oath made out in due form by a Notary Public (reporter), he was allowed to keep his place in the race.

The running race was for one mile, best three in five; purse $80, divided. Entries: "Gray Geiding," owned by Dodge and Young, Xenia; "Gray Dean," owned by A. N. Shook, New Jasper; "Reuben R. Springer," owned by Jas. T. Chapman, Springfield; "Muncie," owned by G. H. Dean, Xenia. First heat, time 1:50. Gray Geiding drove, Reuben Springer second, Muncie third, Munde fourth. These positions were unbroken to the finish, time 2:02 and 2:11, prizes awarded accordingly.

NOTES.

The members of the fair board are all courteous gentlemen, and deserve great credit for their efforts.

"Say, Dr. Hazard, hasn't this prohibition eating stand a corker?" asked D. W. Stewart of the doctor yesterday.

"No, why?" answered the doctor. "Why, I only thought you would have found fault along with the other things, you know."

It should be remembered that it requires a great number of favorable circumstances to make a successful fair. The weather on the opening days was greatly against the fair this year.

It was charged that "Spradler" could have beaten "Pilot," but that Rapp was onto the secret that "Spradler" was not a Clark county horse and hence the game was set up to take first and second money, but the "outh" of the driver ought to settle it.

STOLEN POCKET-BOOKS.

One of Which Contained Notes to the Value of $1,333.

Friday afternoon Officer Rizer found the pocket-book of Fred Armstrong of Troy, which was picked from his pocket on the 1. R. & W. midnight train last Wednesday night. The pocket-book when he lost it contained $25 in money and notes amounting to several hundred dollars. When found Friday afternoon the money had been extracted and the pocket-book thrown along the railroad track on East Washington street. It contained notes for the following amounts: $100, $100, $100, $50, $25, $200 and $125—$1,333 in all. The signature was torn from the note for $225. Marshal Hughes went the book to its owner this morning.

This morning C. E. Voorhees found lying on top of the Little Miami depot a small pocket book which had evidently been stolen, rifled and thrown where it was found. It contained an accident insurance policy in favor of J. W. McClain, of Indianapolis, and a tax receipt from the treasurer of Marion county. The pocket book was left in charge of Ticket Agent Hines.

A DOOMED DESPERADO.

A KENTUCKY MURDERER CAPTURED IN SPRINGFIELD.

Recognized by a Relative of His Victim—Story of the Murder—Detective John T. Norris Captures His Man—A Queer Character.

George Campbell, alias Henry Spillman, alias Tom Yates and half a dozen other names, was arrested for murder last night and taken to Nicholasville, Ky., this morning to answer for a crime a week ago yesterday (Friday) a colored girl, named Alice Gray, who is a domestic at the Casualty residence on North Limestone street, was walking in on a picnic in company with a young colored man named Dennis Wear. As they were passing the stand on East Main street they met three men going east on a load of lumber, one of whom attracted her attention at once and she remarked: "There goes Henry Spillman, the man who murdered Jesse Williams." She was of course eager to know the circumstances of the murder and she related to him substantially as she told them to a Globe-Republic reporter this morning. In September or October of 1883, there was a colored dance at a school house in Nicholasville. Jesse Williams, an uncle by marriage to the narrator, was present at this dance, and had about his clothes $125 which he had been paid that day for some property. Spillman and two other negro desperados named Bill Downey and Tom Parks had a job to rob him. They insulted him to gain a pretext for a quarrel, and in a few moments the jambores were on. The lights were extinguished, revolvers began to pop and women to scream and all was confusion. It was all over in a few moments, and when the lights were turned on again Williams was found wounded and robbed, while two more shots had taken effect, wounding one man and a woman, both of whom subsequently recovered. The three desperados who accomplished the job were captured and tried. The other two were sent to the penitentiary at Springfield. The third, the Nicholasville jail shortly after his capture, being held for trial in the Common Pleas court and before his trial in the Common Pleas court and before his trial in the Common Pleas court.

There were 3,775 new cases of cholera and 1,190 deaths throughout Spain yesterday.

POLITICAL NOTES AND POINTERS.

Judge Foster is stirring up the Hocking Valley republicans.

Senator Edmunds believes Cleveland's civil service intentions were honest enough, but he was surrounded by the wrong class of men.

Mr. Jim Boyle, of the Commercial Gazette, has discovered a man for whom a General once prescribed "good liquor and cod-liver oil" as a remedy for pleuro-pneumonia, assuring him at the time that the prescription had cured him of a similar trouble. The man's name is George Davis, and he is a general freight agent of the Muskingum Valley at Zanesville. It may be in the way of advancing the cause of medical science to say that Mr. Davis tried the remedy and found it efficacious.

READY FOR THE FRY.

THE GREAT CONTENT WILL CERTAINLY TAKE PLACE.

The Fight will Not Be Interfered With If It Does Not Become Too Brutal—Chinaman Throughed With Visitors—McCauley Hopel—Betting Even.

CINCINNATI, Aug. 29.—Constable Spritzky found John L. Sullivan at Chester Park yesterday afternoon. The pugilist was arraigned at Judge Huston's court and gave bond in $1000 not to engage in a prize-fight. The fight will undoubtedly take place, Sullivan and his party maintaining that the exhibition will be a glove contest, simply, and not a prize-fight.

The city is full of sporting men attracted hither from all directions to see the fight this afternoon. Vine Street, in the vicinity of the saloons, where seats were sold for the contest, has been crowded with strangers all day. The appearance of a carriage with strange occupants sufficed to fill the street with men and boys hoping to see one of the renowned boxers. Their desire was at last gratified by Sullivan visiting the city to complete his bond. He afterward drove to several places in the city, everywhere drawing great crowds. Sullivan's bond merely binds him not to engage as principle in a prize fight in Ohio for one year. It is understood that no further efforts will be made to interfere with the affair and if anything is done it will be by indictment after the event. McCauley did not come to the city, as reported last night, to give bond, but to avoid arrest. He is attending strictly to his training and has wasted no time. He took a mile walk this morning and said he "felt like a winner."

The contest is to be under Marquis of Queensbury rules, six rounds, or to a finish. The general feeling is that Sullivan must win, but McCauley is credited with being able to cause him much trouble.

BETTING ABOUT EVEN.

CINCINNATI, Aug. 29, 2 P. M.—The city is crowded with sporting men, gamblers and throngs from all parts of the country. Fifteen hundred persons arrived from Chicago this morning. Trains running to Chester Park are crowded. It is estimated that thirty thousand people will witness the fight. The sheriff refuses to interfere so long as the contest does not resolve itself into a brutal fight. Betting is about even.

Hazing on Board a Practice Ship.

ANAPOLIS, Aug. 29.—Commander Huntington, commanding the practice ship Constellation, it is said, left with the superintendent of the Naval Academy today the result of an investigation into certain cases of alleged hazing aboard ship during the summer. Seven cadets of the first class are accused of the offense. The cases will be investigated along with those already reported. The Constellation was towed up to the academy yesterday. Cadets who were not implicated in the hazing business went on board today. A court martial for the trial of the hazing Naval Academy cadets is ordered for tomorrow. Those cadets not directly concerned in the hazing will have their leave of absence forfeited. The two principals, if convicted, will be dismissed.

Girls Arrested in an Opium Joint.

New York, Aug. 29.—Two pretty young girls went into the Chinese laundry at 373 Greenwich street yesterday afternoon. Policeman Norton followed them in. They were in a rear room with a lay-out of opium, opium pipes, and lamps, ready to begin smoking. The policeman arrested the girls and took them to the police station today. The girls said they were Mary Murphy, 14 years old, and Nellie Matthews, 20 years old, and they resided at 26 Market street. The Chinamen said they were Charles Young and John Chung. They owned the laundry. The girls told Justice Power that they had never been in the laundry, and that the Chinamen had asked them to go in. All four were locked up for examination to-day.

A Dying Man Sets Out to Walk 300 Miles.

New York, Aug. 29.—A young man suffering from consumption was found on Monday night on a stoop in Montgomery street, Jersey City. He gave his name as George P. Bauer, and said he lived in Pittsburgh. He was sent to the Charity Hospital, as he was hardly able to walk, and yesterday one of the physicians there told him that he could not live more than six months. Bauer said he wanted to die in his own home, and against the wishes of his physician he left the institution and started to walk to Pittsburgh.

A Pleasant Social Event.

Quite a pleasant evening was spent at their residence by the friends of the Misses Viney, of Fair street, last night. Music, dancing and social games was the order of the evening. The party was given in honor of their guests, Miss Amanda Viney and Miss Louisa Moss. About twenty young people were present, among whom were the Misses Page, Jones, Hall, Gills, Taylor and Frey; Messrs. Raddan, Page, Frey and Viney.

A Miser Bitten and Robbed.

Northampton, Pa., Aug. 29.—Isaac Johnson, an aged man, reputed to be a miser, who lives in Plymouth township, was assaulted in his home last Tuesday by four robbers. They knocked him down, bound and gagged him, and because he did not deliver up the safe key, beat him terribly. They then ransacked the house and made off with about $150 in silver.

Firing Into a Railroad Train.

New York, Aug. 29.—While the Croton special, which arrived at the Grand Central depot at 6:40 p. m., was passing 110th street yesterday, a pistol shot came tearing through the window of one of the cars. No one was injured, but some young ladies who sat under the window were much alarmed. Robert Bonner, cap, sat in a seat only a few feet away.

An Aged Horse-Thief Sentenced.

INDIANAPOLIS, Kas., Aug. 29.—John Brooks, aged eighty-two years, was sentenced to two years in the penitentiary yesterday for stealing a horse. Brooks was with a gang of horse-thieves which infest this state, Iowa and the Indiana Territory, and under their directions did the work for which he now suffers. He is a native of Cayuga, N. Y.

Sympathy for John Roach.

MEDIA, Penn., Aug. 29.—The republican convention in this place passed among other resolutions one expressing sympathy with John Roach in his business misfortune, and denouncing the national administration for its persecution of him. The resolution was received with great applause, the meeting cheering for many minutes.

Negotiations Completed.

LONDON, Aug. 29.—It is almost certain that negotiations between England and Russia on the Afghan question are now completed. The two governments are at present busily engaged in arranging the last details of a mutual understanding, and negotiations are proceeding rapidly and harmoniously.

Have Hall Yesterday.

CINCINNATI 14; New York 3; Philadelphia 3; Providence 1; Pittsburgh 3; Boston 1; Athletics 4; Meta 2.

INDICATIONS.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 29.—For Ohio Valley and Tennessee—Fair weather, except in Tennessee; local rains, variable winds, slight rise in temperature.

SUITS.

Shall we tell of that particular suit on which you have not quite decided? That all wool frock coat with pants and vest to match, $9; or that suit of blue, brown, gray, dahlia or black, $10, $12, $14, $15, $18, $20, or shall we turn to our pant stock and attempt to minutely describe the various separated necessities therein contained? Shall it be the solidest, richest, neatest, handsomest and most expensive of these garments at $4.50, $5, $5.50, $6, $7; to measure, $8, $9? or of the more inferior, less valuable, least enjoyable quality, at 75c, 90c, $1, $1.25, $1.50, $2? or substantial, made-for-service, intermediate goods of fairly dressy textures, $2.50, $3, $3.50, $4?

Have you found where your advantages lie? Is it not here? steadily here? Are not our advantages (manufacturing, jobbing and retailing) of the utmost importance to you in making up your slate of expenditures for the various outlays necessary to a year's warmth, comfort and general satisfaction?

Isn't our one price system and privilege to return any purchase proving unsatisfactory from whatever cause, and our plainly marked prices that any child can understand, of any consequence to you in discriminating between our clothing house and another? Isn't our way easier, quicker and more gratifying to you as a purchaser? Are not the class of goods we make different? Quality. We are not satisfied in selling such as people want to buy. We sell such as people ought to buy. Bad materials and skillful work are put together in a most seductive fashion. Honest material and faithful work are none too good for the lowest grade.

About hats, let us say only enough to keep the news from spoiling. Our advantages here make surprising prices, and more so just now on account of many broken lines.

Just at the present time the number of buyers depends upon how much we give for a dollar. We have given more than ever since the first of August. Consequently buyers keep coming.

In Bags and Satchels, from small to large, from shoddy to good, from 60c to $8, and we tell you what they are.

We are going to keep on making and getting together the best in the world, selling for less than market rates, and telling the news as the things are ready and the time is ripe.
